Peaches turns sour

Party girl Peaches Geldof was outraged when she left a recent high street awards ceremony empty-handed after losing out in the 'Most Stylish' category to Wayne Rooney's other half, Coleen McLoughlin. Branding the Chief WAG 'cheap and chavvy', the stroppy teen ranted at anyone who'd listen. "Coleen, better dressed than me? Yeah right, like all those other footballers' wives. And lets not talk about being fake...the nails the makeup, its crazy.' Bit of a sore loser are we now, Peaches?

GIORDANO OPENS AT DFS

Give your wardrobe a seasonal overhaul and check out the new Giordano store at Dubai Festival City, which offers a mix of essential staples that will take you all the way through summer in style.

FASHION'S NEWEST NAMES

Heard of Graeme Armour, Andrea McWha, Degan Agatonovic or double act Maki Aminaka Lofvander and Marcus Wilmont? You soon will! Chosen by Tom Ford and Christopher Bailey as this year's finalists in Fashion Fringe, the competition that seeks out Britain's brightest fashion talent, the lucky finalists will see their debut collections on the runway at London Fashion Week in September. Responsible for launching the careers of Erdem and Gavin Douglas, we can't wait to find out who the winner is!
