Newsprint

'Never too busy' was the message that came down the runway this season, with prints that spanned the spectrum from floral to geometric.

Striking stripes from Mulberry with their zebra print Bayswater bag.

How to wear it:
 These patterns speak for themselves so there is little need to team them with more than a plain pair of shoes and monotone wrap, unless of course you find matching shoes, bag and jacket, in which case synchronise all the way.

Jane Carr headed up textile design at Versace before launching her own range of scarves, and towels too, exclusively at Boutique 1.
